By Bus or By Foot

The Riddel Hall Campus is serviced by Metro bus routes 8A & 8D, please alight at the Ridgeway Street stop. Both depart from Donegall Square East beside City Hall and run via Great Victoria Street (Europa Bus Centre), past the Lanyon Building, and along the Stranmillis Road, before reaching Riddel Hall. The bus stop is directly outside the main Riddel Hall campus entrance.

The Europa Bus Centre provides outgoing links across Northern Ireland, as well as airport coaches and routes to Dublin and beyond. It is only a 30 minute walk from the Riddel Hall main campus.

By Train

By Bike

Belfast Bikes for hire are located at numerous stations around the city. The nearest docking station to the Riddel Hall Campus is in the Stranmillis Roundabout car park. Numerous bike lock stations are located around the site.

By Car

Riddel Hall is a diverse site, encompassing many buildings and varying facilities.

Whilst public car parking is available, it is limited and offered on a first come first serve basis. There is no capacity to reserve, book or pay for car parking.

In an effort to avoid disappointment and help the environment, delegates should be encouraged to commute via alternative means.

The closest public car parks are located at the bottom of the Stranmillis Road next to the roundabout and along the Stranmillis Embankment located at the Queen's Physical Education Centre.
